

POLICEMEN KIDNAP BRIDE OF A SERGEANT

Give Newlyweds a Ride in Patrol
Auto, Followed by Wedding
Breakfast at St. Regis.

Policemen of the East Twenty-second Street Station were to-day enjoying a joke played by twenty of his uniformed friends on Sergeant Frank R. Morris, who yesterday, at the Church of St. John the Evangelist, First Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, married Miss Margaret Katherine Sold, of No. 1008 First Avenue.

As the couple left the church the bride, in white satin, was captured by the policemen and carried to an auto patrol waiting around the corner. The bridegroom had to follow. Long white ribbons adorned the green patrol, and as it sped through several streets with clanging bells the bride got a good idea of one feature of her husband's daily life. At her home the couple were transferred to a touring car decorated with streamers, tin cans and old shoes, and with a few friends were carried to the St. Regis for a wedding breakfast.

Eczema Is a Skin Disease

For years medical men have been seeking a cure for eczema, the most common and most stubborn of skin diseases. Some said it was a blood disease; some said it was the result of indigestion. It remained for one astute chemist to settle beyond any question that eczema in many forms is a skin disease, and related in no way to a disordered condition of the blood. This same chemist experimented with many antiseptic, healing and soothing agents, but it was not until he formed the ointment Cadum that he at last realized he had given to the world something that would bring relief to thousands of sufferers. Cadum ointment ranks to-day with the great discoveries of the medical world. Its action is so positive that the itching of eczema is stopped at once. People who have itched and scratched for years find sleep and rest soon after Cadum is applied. Price, 10c. a box. Cadum ointment is good for eczema in all its forms, also for pimples, blotches, itch, tetter, scaly skin, eruptions, chafings, psoriasis, rash, sores, scurvy, scabs, itching piles, etc.—Advt.
